❄️ ✨ Welcome to The Broom Closet ✨ ❄️

When winter tightens its grip and the snow and ice settle in, The Broom Closet becomes your sanctuary from the cold.

If you didn't bring enough warm layers—or if snow, ice, or meltwater has left your gear damp—step inside and warm up. We offer donated coats, sweaters, scarves, gloves, and blankets. Take what you need to stay safe and comfortable, and if you can, return items you don't need at the end of the event so they can make their way back to the default world.

When the snow bites and the ice creeps in, follow the warmth
